

Uproar Entertainment Mpackt

Mpackt, born Kye Jackson, in Las Vegas Nevada in 2003, is a self-taught musician. Mpackt began playing instruments at the age of 7 and has been performing on stage touring with his professional musician father since the age of 3. In his early teens, Mpackt began to focus his attention on rap music and audio production.

With his father's rock and metal influence, Mpackt has developed a unique sound that crosses many musical genres. He has worked with the legendary Run DMC and metal icon Wayne Static and was featured in a music video with both.

Mpackt has influences from a range of old school rap and hip-hop artists such as N.W.A. and Beastie Boys, to new school rap like Lil Wayne, Nipsey Hussle, and Mozy. Mpackt has a sound that has been referred to as "rap with soul". Coming in 2022-23: Mpackt is in the studio working on new music and videos. Mpackt will be releasing singles, leading up to a full album. Mpackt will be on the road touring soon, so make sure to see him live. You won't want to miss this energetic force in music.
