

Red Voodoo is breaking out on the scene with their electric stage presence, polished harmonies, and classic but fresh new take on Rock 'n' Roll. Based out of Sacramento, CA the group has been playing small bars and clubs since 2019. During the pandemic, the group released two singles "Rise Up" and "Bring It Back."

This led to opening spots for heavy hitters in rock such as rock n roll hall of famer Sammy Hagar, Bay Area legends Y&T, Everclear, Slaughter, and many more.

Now Red Voodoo is hitting the studio at the famous Hyde Street Studios in San Francisco working on a 5 track EP with grammy nominated producer Jaimeson Durr. The group's goal is to make rock mainstream again and spark a fire in the hearts of music lovers everywhere. Red Voodoo consists of lead singer and frontman Dino McCord, Lead Guitarist Davin Loiler, Bassist Andrew Edwards, and Drummer Andy Nathan.

The band released their latest single "Mystery Girl" on August 4th one week after opening for Sammy Hagar in South Lake Tahoe. The track now has over 290k streams on Spotify.
